Reunion 1974

It rained! Oh my, it rained. But the weather did not dampen the enthusiasm and spirit of over 200 reunioners, including alumnae from as far away as Florida, Nebraska, North Carolina and California who returned to the Campus for the weekend of May 31–June 2.

Among those who came was Georgie Duncan Seavey '02, of Searsport, Maine, who attended her 72nd Reunion, joining her daughter Priscilla Seavey Bjorkman who was with the Class of 1934.

An authentic Hawaiian Luau highlighted the Friday night activities, preceeded by a cocktail party hosted by President and Mrs. Kenneth Greene. The evening concluded with a slide presentation in the Brennan Library auditorium.

Saturday—though the rain continued—there were coffee hours, Campus bus tours, visits to dormitories and classrooms and the Reunion Luncheon. Saturday afternoon alums had the opportunity to visit the new Brennan Library and attend a reception in the library lounge. Reunioners had their choice for dinner. They attended either the “on-Campus” bar-be-que or Dinner-Theatre at the Chateau de Ville.

A great time was had by all—and thanks must be extended to the Reunion Committee, under the leadership of Betty Lindsay Buhler '54, for the “special efforts” that helped to insure a “special time.”

LASELL ANNUAL FUND

Alumnae gifts	1801
Amount		$45,636.
All other gifts	246
Amount		9,989.
Totals	2047	$55,625.

The Annual Fund represents gifts from alumnae, parents and friends for the period July 1, 1973 through June 31, 1974.

The number of alumnae gifts show a 20% increase over last year's fund. Alumnae also accounted for a 16% increase in dollars raised over the same period.

The following pages list donors to the Annual Giving Program. Gifts to the Program for '76 are not included.

Our congratulations and very best good wishes to Mary-Florine Thielens Peeples and Elizabeth Thielens Miller, who celebrated their 88th Birthday on May 7, 1974. Mary-Florine writes: "Can-not believe it myself! The Millers will celebrate their 60th wedding anniver-sary on June 16th—a big family dinner is planned at the Beverly Country Club. Have just returned from the Patriotic Congresses at Washington's Mayflower Hotel—had a gay time with luncheons, banquets, tour of the White House and various receptions. Then spent 10 days with Persis-Jane (Peebles Cline x-'36) in Scarsdale, N. Y. She will be com-ing on early in June for her reunion at the University of Chicago. Am now mak-ing dates for next season's lectures with French songs, authentic dances,

From Grace Emerson Cole: "Was very much interested in the March BULLETIN—especially to see pictures of the two Winslow 'boys'—having lived in Senior House under the supervision of their parents. Those were happy days so long ago."

'12

Agnes Adelsdorf Weil is "happy to report that I am very active as Chairman of Adult Recreation at New York's Bellevue Hospital—having founded the department 27 years ago."

'16

Dorothy Crane Crowe was hoping to see Mabel Straker Kimball, Carol Rice, Ruth Taylor Collinson, and Marion Griffin Wolcott while on a summer visit in New Jersey with her daughter.

Mildred Strain Nutter reports a March luncheon reunion in Sarasota, Florida. Attending were Lillian Astill Ainsworth, Gin Moore Starkey, Gin's daughter, Kay Starkey Litehiser '42 and Kay's daughter, Ginnie, who attends Dana Hall. Mid also reported several delightful phone visits with Nora Hayward Rodd, now a year-round Sarasota resident.

Editor's Note

Your editor is indebted to Mildred Strain Nutter '17, who identified the members of the cooking class pictured in the March Bulletin. For memories sake—they are: R. to L. Rachel Houston Quinn '17, Virginia Moore Starkey '17, Grace Tredway Davies '18, Nora Hayward Rodd '17, Violet Lewis Simmons '17 and Edith Hobson Fricke '17 (deceased).

A bronze eagle that guarded the entry to Adolf Hitler's office in Berlin three decades ago is now on display at the Air Force Museum, Dayton, Ohio. The 450-pound statue was donated by

Mildred Cary Hill '18 with Hitler's Eagle

Mildred Cary Hill at the wish of her husband, the late Air Force Maj. Gen. Edmund W. Hill. Gen. Hill had acquired the eagle on a bet while on special duty during the occupation of Berlin in 1945. A fellow officer bet Gen. Hill $10 he couldn't remove one of a pair of eagles from their perches above Hitler's doorway. Gen. Hill asked Russian officers for assistance, and later the Russians kept one of the eagles and gave Gen. Hill the other.

Mid Cary Hill spent six months away from home this past winter. Early in November she drove to Florida; flew to St. Paul to spend Thanksgiving with daughter Janet Eaton Maynard '45. From there she went to Honolulu, Fiji, Tahiti and spent three weeks in Australia—visiting relatives in Sydney, Melbourne and Adelaide. Australia's temperature on Christmas Day was 100°. Mid has dismantled the 14-room home at Belgrade Lakes; is now at Manchester Condominium, R.F.D. #5, Augusta, Maine.

Barbara McLellan McCormick has returned from Edmonds, Washington, where she was a guest of Kathryn Craig Rowand.

It was a real pleasure to have word from Hildur Brekke, now Mrs. Johan Akerman, Ringsjögården, 24300 Höör, Sweden: "It is 54 years since I left Lasell, after having spent a truly wonderful and memorable year at the school. My husband and I visited Lasell for three delightful days in August '39. Mrs. McDonald was there and Dr. Winslow came down from Vermont to meet us. We shall never forget those days! Our next trip to the U.S.A. was in 1962 when Johan was invited to lecture at Princeton, Stanford, Berkeley and of course, Harvard. Please give my very best to all the Winslows and to Helen Beede, and please do tell Gwendolyn McDonald Black that her mother was one of the loveliest people ever met by my husband and myself. She had the wisdom that comes when you are at peace with yourself, the kindness of heart, the dignity, the humor."

The Class extends sincere sympathy to Helene Grashorn Dickson, whose husband, Lawrence Dickson, passed away on April 14, 1974. In addition to his widow, Mr. Dickson is survived by a son and a daughter, Jean Dickson Trevelier '49. Helene has now moved from Winnetka; her new mailing address: Box 170-A, R. R. 3, Long Grove, Illinois 60047.

Miriam Chollett Bershon writes: "My husband has retired from medical practice and we are enjoying the wonderful weather and relaxing life of Florida. Sarasota is a very interesting place to live—we have made many friends and my husband has adjusted very well. Hope to be at Lasell for our 55th."

The Class extends sincere sympathy to Carolyn Colton Avery and to Lovina Smith Steffian. Paul Avery died March 21, 1974 while vacationing in Delray, Fla. Edwin T. Steffian, one of Boston's leading architects and former president of the Boston Society of Architects, died at his Cambridge home on April 26, 1974.

Claire Parker Everett is "sorry that plans for our 50th fell through. However, we are going to my husband's 50th Reunion at Dartmouth in June '74. Had a most enjoyable winter vacation in Florida. Good health prevails."

A note to the 1974 Reunion Committee from Maude Wilcox Hanley: "It is a great disappointment for me not to be able to return for the 50th Reunion of the Class of 1924. Kindly extend best wishes to those classmates who are on campus. I have many happy memories of the friendships made and knowledge gained at Lasell."

'25

On March 20th the Peoria (Ill.) Journal Star reported: "Unofficial returns from all 173 of the 46th Legislative District's precincts showed Prescott E. Bloom an easy winner over incumbent Hudson R. Sours for the Republican nomination for state senator. Bloom will face Democrat Daniel Hardy in the fall. Prescott, a former special assistant attorney general and staff member for the Republican majority in the House, is the son of the late Mariesta Howland Bloom.

Madeleine Roth White and husband Herb enjoyed a delightful tour of Russia in mid-October.

Betty Smith Lum lists her extra-curricular activities: "N. J. State Commission on Women; Vice Chairman Natural Lands Trust Commission (N.J.); member Morris County Heritage Commission; Vice Chairman Women's Club of Chatham; Chairman of Trustees."

Helen Duncan Devereux is "enjoying retirement from navy news-editor/writer position; traveling—both on foreign tours and all over the U. S. and Canada via our own camper."

'27

From Mary Keim Tietze: "We have a grandson, Harry Mosher Lowd IV. Mother is Beth Tietze Lowd; father is administrator of the Rumford (Maine) Community Hospital. They live on a farm in Norway, Maine. My husband is now retired and head of the Planning Board of Chatham, N. J. I still paint and teach."

More than 100 members and friends of The Waltham Hospital gathered to pay tribute to a beloved member of the hospital staff at Newton's Marriot Hotel on Friday, June 7, 1974. Lillian Bethel, administrative assistant in public relations, will be retiring after twenty-seven years of dedicated service.

Tina (Finlayson) and Ellis Dana have returned to their Weston home after spending a month in the Midwest and far West. In June they attended a very special Reunion for Ellis at Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota; visited relatives in southern California; two weeks in Edmonds, Washington with son Ellis and family; were entertained by friends and former colleagues in Madison, Wisconsin.

Peg Basley Irwin, president of the Zonta Club of Waltham, is a District Service Chairman of the organization and served as chairman of the Clambake at the International Convention held in Boston in June.

Margaret Newman has completed "a very busy year with volunteer work at the local hospital, Senior Citizens group and social work in Braintree. Am looking forward to a quiet and restful summer at Kearsage, N. H., where I shall be seeing Phoebe Dotten Lowe."

Eleanor Pitcher Hansen admits: "Time divided now between 'Apple Hill', our 1795 house in Granville, Mass. (please come to see us) and our home at Ocean Reef Club, Key Largo, Fla.—really the best of two worlds."

And Muriel Hagerthy Meikle writes: "My husband retired a few years ago so now we spend eight months at our home on Longboat Key, Sarasota, Florida, where we enjoy sunshine and golf. The remainder of the year we are at our Cape Elizabeth, Maine home which isn't too far from my daughter and family, who reside in Marblehead, Mass. Kay Forgey '28 visited us in April."

An early May message from Margaret A. Wethern: "Having reached mandatory retirement age, in December I terminated my third and probably last career, as Principal Assistant Secretary of an electronics corporation. I am more surprised than anyone to discover how difficult it has been to relinquish the position (paralegal in nature) and the inherent professional and stockholder contacts, even though I have innumerable personal projects to catch up. Looking forward to seeing the '29-ers—we always have a fantastic reunion."

Dorothy Camin Rozan has co-authored, with Anne DeRosa, a book, duly copyrighted and published in 1973, Blueprint . . . A Volunteer Program.

Kathryn Dow Mathes proudly announces: "We have three lovely daughters and eight wonderful grandchildren—ranging in ages from 3 to 15 years."

Sincere thanks to Libby Baer DeStaebler for sharing news from Dorothy Glasser Montgelas: "Carl and I have been in Delray (Fla.) for four years at Jamaica Square. Carl retired early so we spend about six months in Florida and the rest of the time here (2420 Village Drive S.E., Grand Rapids, Mich.). Would love to see you, your husband, Louise Roberts Stephenson and Frances Kearby Bon. Perhaps we can arrange an April get-together. We love Florida and our children often visit us with grandchildren. We have two daughters, a son and four grandchildren! By the way, I met Dorothy Young Heath '30 and her husband in Delray—she is a good golfer.

Marion Inglis Leonard writes from 5717 Encina Road, Goleta, Calif.: "My husband has now retired; we moved here last December. Our daughter lives about 100 miles south of us—we often see her and our grandson."

We are pleased to report that Frances Wheeler Sawyer is recovering well from surgery. She spent several days at the Mass. Eye and Ear Infirmary in February.

Virginia Hinshaw Wilks and husband, now retired, are "not so conscious of limited vacation time—have made several interesting trips and look forward to more traveling in the years to come."

From Milford, Connecticut Eunice Stack O'Connor writes: "Lost my Mr. Wonderful four years ago. Our daughter, Donna, has produced two lovely boys—they live only fifteen minutes away. Delighted to know that Mary O'Connell has been honored as a Lasell Medallion recipient. Visited Clara Giarla Albani two years ago in Miami. Love Florida but cannot isolate myself from the family. Healthwise, I fight the battle of the sixties and have a full-time job managing my home. For recreation—there is always bridge. Anyone need a fourth? Fond memories."

Marjorie Magune Curtis is "spending a quiet summer—in and out of the pool. Am looking forward to a month's trip to Australia with the Shriners in October."

Ruth Galusha Bartley reports a delightful New Year's Day visit with Miss Constance Blackstock '09. Ruth's address: Santander 3-C, 400 Deal Lake Drive, Asbury Park, N. J. 07712.

Natalie Park has received a fine promotion—this year she will serve as Chairman of the Fine Arts Department of Boston's Winsor School.

Lib (Page) and John Sealey proudly announce the arrival of Grandchild #3. A daughter, Candice Jean, was born on June 21, 1974 to son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Fleming of Milford, Mass.

From Dorothy Taggart Krumsieg: "Will be seeing Gene Loomis Flagler in July when they will be at their summer home on Klinger Lake, Michigan. The Flaglers are loving 'retirement' living in Boca Raton, Fla. Our older daughter lives in Vermont; the younger in Ohio—we are kept busy with visits to and from them. They each have a girl and a boy."

Barbara Merritt Batten was delighted to have first-hand news from Class Agent Ellie Small Domina. Bobbie continues to keep busy as treasurer of the Central School District in Highland, N. Y.; works in a local department store. She adds: "The children are all happily married—get some baby-sitting for two granddaughters who live nearby."

Althea Ward Weatherhead sends word from Bog Road, Limestone, Me.: "After five years of living in the woods—a mile from the main highway—we moved at Christmas time. The house is very old; we had lots to do; but it is snug and cozy and surely beats traveling via sled and snowshoes!"

Helen Bardua Childs' husband recently retired from General Foods, after 39 years with the company. Bunny and Russ celebrated with a 22,000-mile trip to Fiji, Australia and New Zealand.

Dear Class of 1934:

My sister, Betty Cook Kalbach, and I are both so very disappointed not to be able to join classmates at Lasell for our 40th anniversary. This past year we have had two wonderful visits together. Carleton and I joined Betty and Fred for a week's cruise to the Gulf Islands off Vancouver last summer; then spent a month visiting relatives and friends—plus four National Parks—along the way. Betty came East in February; we had ten days in our everchanging Washington, D. C. We are both happily busy with families. In July 1974 my son, Carl, will be chief resident at Baltimore's Mercy Hospital, and a year later will begin to study his specialty, gastroenterology, for which he has received a fine grant. As for myself, I am involved as a volunteer in Mental Health work; also continue art courses. Very best good wishes to all from Betty and

LOUISE COOK DAVIS
6445 Walter Reed Drive
Falls Church, Va. 22044

From Edith Downey: "Sorry I will be unable to attend Reunion—this is our busy season. I resigned five years ago from the Children's Museum and I have been teaching a 4th grade in the Hartford school system. Love and best wishes to all."

Marjorie Jones Hopkins writes from 401 Georgetown Woods, Deep River, Conn.: "We've had a number of changes in our family since my husband suffered a stroke four years ago. This year we sold our Essex home and moved to a condominium in Deep River. It is an entirely new way of life. We've given up the gift shop and I am now taking a Real Estate course. Daughter Judith (Lasell '67) is now a Christian missionary in Nepal."

Carol Morehouse Jones brings us up-to-date with her family: "Daughter Nancy and family are living in Needham, Mass.; Kathy (Lasell '67) and family are in Washington, Conn., where her husband, Diederik van Renesse, is a member of the faculty of the Rumsey Hill School, and where Kathy is the school nurse. Bill, Jr., a banker like his father, and wife Gretchen live in Norristown, Penna; our youngest, Susan, will enter Lasell in September '74."

Earlier this year the Chapel Hill-Chauncy Hall Newsletter featured: "Roberta M. Buchanan—a creative, experimental and innovative person... Dr. Roberta (Morrill) Buchanan, coordinator of curriculum, testing and development skills, is now in her sixth year at Chapel Hill-Chauncy Hall. A native of Nashua, New Hampshire, she is a graduate of Lasell Junior College, Leland Powers Theater, Radio and TV School, Boston University (where she received a B.S. in Education and a Doctorate in Education) and the University of Florida (where she received an M.A. in Speech, Speech Correction and Reading). She has also studied educational television at the University of Wisconsin."

"Mrs. Buchanan has a varied and fascinating background. For five summers she was involved as a member of a resident acting company at the Boothbay Playhouse in Boothbay Harbor, Maine. Her interest in drama has manifested itself in many areas of her professional career. She was Chairman of Speech and Drama at Lasell Junior College for four years. While at Lasell, she established and directed the Workshop Players. She was Chairman of Speech and Modern Languages at St. Petersburg Junior College. Here she held the distinction of being instrumental in installing and using language laboratories as tools in the development of languages. While at St. Petersburg, Mrs. Buchanan established and directed the Playmakers and Children's Theatre—the first children's theatre on Florida's West Coast. Because of her knowledge and expertise, she was sent to the University of Puerto Rico as an observer when the University established its bilingual program. She also wrote, directed and produced a commemorative pageant for the Florida Educational Association. She wrote, directed and produced an outdoor pageant celebrating the 25th anniversary of St. Petersburg Junior College, and she wrote and directed a series of six programs on drama appreciation for Educational TV. She has published in the Players Magazine and Speech Teacher.

"Mrs. Buchanan is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, Delta Kappa Gamma and Pi Lambda Theta; is a member of Who's Who of American Women, Executive Board of Boston University Alumni, and a member of the Boston University and Lasell Fundraising Committees."

The Class extends sincere sympathy to Eleanor Ramsdell Stauffer, whose mother, Mrs. Edgar L. Ramsdell, passed away on May 30, 1974.

Barbara Briggs Stanton's daughter, son-in-law and three granddaughters are directors of Blue Ridge Ranch, a Christian Retreat Center in Chittenden, Vermont.

Betty Jane Allenbaugh Weller proudly announces: "We have two grandchildren—Harry Richard and Vanessa Weller—four and two years old."

From Josie Moore Alexanderson: "My husband and I are delighted to be living in Plainfield, New Jersey, where we moved five years ago. My three children are graduated from college and are gainfully employed. Hurray!!!! My oldest son is married; I am the proud grandmother of two. The whole family comes for the Christmas holidays—we have a ball!"

Two Florida residents keep in touch. Jane Brackley Starbird writes from Apopka: "Ed and I have been commuting between Maine and Florida for the past year and a half. We finally sold Dad's factory in October, but will be in Maine settling up the business during the summer months." Virginia White Wardwell and husband have bought a first-floor condominium apartment at Ironwood Country Club, Bradenton. They occasionally visit Helen Beede '21, who winters there; Pat Meyer Gere is nearby at Holmes Beach.

Dear Friends and Classmates,

This past year has been a busy one. My mother, Mrs. William G. Upham, who has been living with me for seven years, died in September 1973 at the age of 90 years. Gordon and I flew to Florida in February; in addition to visits with relatives, we had a delightful afternoon with Helen Beede '21 and her handsome tiger cat, Joe. I have been Vice Regent of the Freeloze Baldwin Stow Chapter D.A.R. in Milford, Conn. the past three years, and in June '74 they made me their Regent. I have met our new State Vice Regent, Ruth Bee Jackson '31, of Greenwich. Am a member of the Connecticut Genealogical Society and my husband and I are members of the Orange Historical Society and the Orange Congregational Church choir. Son William will be married in September to a very sweet Milford (Conn.) girl. They have already bought a home in Milford, near the Housatonic River. Our daughter, Mrs. Robert W. Bailey, lives nearby in Woodbury, so we see a great deal of our two grandchildren, David, 6, and Laurel, 3.

RUTH UPHAM PETREMONT
Orange, Conn. 06477

A second '36 Connecticut resident, Dorothy Paine Chaucer (33 Farmcliffe Drive, Glastonbury), writes: "Ruth Ellsworth Laas stops by occasionally for chatting and a cup of tea. Big boating has been replaced by a little house in Mystic with water on two sides and a little boat for clamming and fishing. It's great to be inside looking out when the Sound is rough and when it is foggy!"

'37

Jane Eldridge Meaney exclaims: "At long last, we are grandparents—a grandson, born on April 1, 1974."

Priscilla Greig Jones, widowed eight years ago, is now Mrs. Frank W. Linnell, R-2, West Auburn, Maine 04210.

Virginia (Webb) Tompkins, Jack and Ginna Jr. (aged 14) visited Peg (Sage) and Jack LaRock in Tubac, Arizona in March.

Babs Burnham Rice admits: "We're enjoying Sarasota living tremendously. Our antique shop, 'The Birdcage,' keeps us busy, and so many people say it looks like New England. My interest in antiques was inspired by Mrs. Winifred Hudson in her period furniture course—way back when!"

From Betty Harrington VanHuysen: "Age is creeping up!!! We sold our lovely old farmhouse, but not all the land we've tree-farmed. New address is 5419 Palmyra Road in Pittsford—nearer buses, banks and stores. With the girls in California and Whitehorse, Yukon and Butch at college we don't have too much excitement. Bill is associate Dean of Students at the University of Rochester; we both have numerous duties and many contacts with various student groups."

Anne Tipton Gardner writes: "My husband and I own three Snelling and Snelling offices in New Jersey; preparing to open another. We are busy in state and national employment organizations. Both sons, Christopher and Edward, are married."

Sincere sympathy is extended to Faye Wadhams Smith and to Carol Wadhams Wolcott '43, whose father, M. Allyn Wadhams, died on May 11, 1974. An outstanding member of the Hartford community, Mr. Wadhams is survived by his wife, a son, three daughters, two brothers, three sisters, 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

24 Pickburn Court, Cockeysville, Maryland is the new address for Barbara Jeppesen Thoman. Barbara adds: "We moved here last November. Our married daughter, Jean, lives in Vermont with our grandchildren, Robin 4, and Andrew 1. Our son, Robert, is a junior in college. I hope to get back to Lasell one of these days. Best wishes to all classmates."

Eleanor Loeffler Olsen's son, Dr. Kenneth Olsen, was married on February 9, 1973 to Barbara Agnew of San Francisco. The Auburndale Congregational Church was the scene of the June 29th wedding of Pamela Haas and Donald C. Lynde, son of Jane Black Lynde.

From Audrey Spiller Smalley: "After a very busy and interesting summer of 1973, living underground in the Ecology House in Marstons Mills, I am now living in a small apartment in Hyannis, Mass. (290 W. Main Street). Plan a fall visit with my son and family in Phoenix, Arizona."

Harriet (Newcomb) and Gerald Stoughton are brand new grandparents! A son, Eric, was born on March 5, 1974 to daughter Nancy Stoughton Larson.

Virginia Allen Hartwell writes from Orange, California: "Two years ago we resigned from World Radio Missionary Fellowship so that my husband could be assistant director of the Berean Bible Ministries. His responsibilities are to produce 4-5 hours of religious programming on KBSA, Channel 46, nightly. Jimmy Roberts of the Lawrence Welk Show and Dale Evans of cowboy movie fame are among the personalities who have appeared on the program. I am principally a homemaker; my outside interests are practice teaching at Santa Ana College Child Development Center; substitute teaching; occasional puppet shows and teaching puppet workshops."

The current address for Eleanor Ayers Evans is 98 Hillcrest Court, R. R. #2, New Canaan, Conn. 06840. Eleanor brings us up-to-date: "Three years ago I remarried a wonderful man—Herbert W. Evans—a widower with four children. So—with my three—we have the grand total of seven. However, we have only two at home—my Kim and Herb's Holly; his Sandy spends summers at home while attending Muskingum College in Ohio. It is a big group to keep up with. God has been good to us and we are most grateful."

Faye Wadhams Smith shares a letter from Marge Wells Parkyn: "Nancy Allen Schmetzer '39 often sends me the LEAVES and when I noticed your name as president of Lasell Alumnae, Inc. I couldn't resist writing to you. (I think this is my first communication since our graduation.) Our Lasell days are very remote in time, but I remember some of the girls quite vividly. Have not for many years kept in touch with anyone, but that doesn't mean I haven't wondered about them. I'll give you a brief account of my doings. My wartime marriage ended in divorce in 1945. Worked in New York for publishers, and last for Carnegie Corporation, an educational foundation. Several years ago I remarried—this marriage is a wonderful success! George is a New Zealander, and we have lived there and in Paris and in Palo Alto, California; now we are in London, where George holds the chair of comparative education at the Institute of Education at the University of London. We are very content here, but when he retires we shall return to Auckland, New Zealand. Needless to say, we should love to see you if you were to come to London." Marge's address: 16 Froggnal Gardens, Flat 4, Hampstead, London NW 3, England.

From Katharine Farnell Guay: "Our sons Tim, 17, and Paul, 16, attend Menlo School in Menlo Park, Calif. Tim, a senior, is a national merit scholar and plans to major in electrical engineering at Harvey Mudd College of Engineering in Claremont. Paul, a junior, is editor of the school newspaper this year. I keep busy with volunteer work—teaching English to foreign-born; my husband and I enjoy gardening.”

Eleanor Parmer Farrar and Dick “are celebrating our 25th wedding anniversary this year—plan a month’s trip to Europe in September. Bradford, our older son, graduated from Georgia Tech last year; Gregory will be a senior at the University of Maryland.”

Barbara Small Walsh writes: “Time marches on—I am now grandmother to four lovely children. Son Steve has a boy and a girl; daughter Sheila has two little daughters. They keep us busy, but it is all very enjoyable. Spent the winter in Florida, and had a lovely vacation in Mexico before returning home.”

*The Franich Family—Christmas 1973
(Mary Margaret Corcoran '39)*

The latest report from the Minnigs (Barbara Albrecht): “This has been a big year for us. Don, Jr., our eldest, works for Westinghouse in Philadelphia; Becky graduated from Salem College in Winston-Salem, N. C. She and Michael, who will be a senior at the University of Arizona next year, are going to spend the summer in Florence, Italy, studying under the Sarah Lawrence-University of Michigan summer program. David has completed his second year at Cornell; Barbara will go to Sweet Briar. Mary Beth, who just finished 8th grade, will go to Western Reserve Academy next year. We are 1/3 finished with the education!”

'40

“I lead a rather quiet life,” writes Jane Hutchison Wulfing, “but am really looking forward to a month in Scandinavia come mid-June. Plan to meet Seattle friends in Copenhagen.”

Cheryl MacDonald, daughter of Carol Birdseye MacDonald, and Daniel E. Sealey III were married on December 8, 1973. They are now living in Waukegan, Illinois, where Dan is employed by Johnson Motors.

Florence Evans McLaughlin hopes “to visit Moscow this summer in the company of our daughter, Mrs. William A. Rhoades. Florence received a B.A. degree two years ago from Goddard College and is active in the teaching of art, having served both in the local school system and with the Senior Citizens Center. Her husband is retired from the U.S. Marine Corps.”

From Nancy Rudy Howard: “Our three children are pursuing careers in education—our son, at the college level; one daughter is a physical education teacher; the other, special education. Although they all attended four-year schools, I still believe in the two-year concept of education!”

Mary Hale Shaner writes from 553 Mulberry Lane, Racine, Wisconsin: “Have four darling grandchildren—three boys and one girl. Have just retired as secretary to the public relations director of Walker Mfg., and I will, among other things, spend more time with those little ones until the urge to get back into the harness moves me again.”

Shirley Lyons Bundy’s two daughters are married; there are two little grandsons. Shirley plans to spend more time each year at the recently purchased condominium in Naples, Florida. Two years ago Shirley had a good visit in Buffalo with her Lasell roommate, Nan Lowe Kammire.

Ann Buckle Fischer has spent several months in Stuart, Florida, where she did public relations for Real Estate Development.

Jean Ferrell Howe and husband are “enjoying semi-retirement in Waterville, Maine. Our two daughters are married—Judith Howe Harvie, Lasell '68, lives in South Portland; has two children. Our other daughter teaches in Missouri; in addition, raises hogs on a hog farm.”

From Nancy Larsen Holbrook: “Pat and I have just finished building a lovely retirement home in Grantham, New Hampshire. It is a four-season community filled with many Dartmouth alumni. I am still on the two-week job I started thirty years ago and enjoy it as much as ever. Socialize with Noel Temple Martinson and her husband both in Boston and Grantham. I send best wishes to all classmates.”

“News for the Lasell BULLETIN” comes from Charlotte Hall Kelly: “In late February John and I took a break from the miseries of Michigan’s winter weather and flew to the island of San Andres, off the coast of Costa Rica. It is a delightful spot—yet unspoiled by tourists! Son Carl, a sophomore at the University of Michigan, will receive the Detroit Free Press Medal for being selected the most outstanding sophomore midshipman on campus in the NROTC program. #2 son, James, is a high school freshman.”

Ruth Roughgarden Frank’s letter is dated June 5, 1974: “Son Drew was graduated last week from Hamilton College. Had a good weekend there and reunion with the family. Ruth, Jr. and David are still working in Washington and expect to start building a new home in Great Falls, Virginia soon. Helen will graduate next week from high school; will show horses all summer; will enter Ursinus College (Penna.) in September as a science major. I would love to hear from old friends—not merely the Christmas greetings.”

It is good to have word from Chickie Goldsmith Lubbers: “Married 1947; daughter born 1954; divorced 1962; remarried 1963; inherited four stepchildren (2 boys, 2 girls); son born 1966. Husband Ed is a banker in Great Neck. Very busy homemaker, gardener; various church, local community activities, etc. Also very happy!” Chickie’s address: 11 Briarcliff Drive, Port Washington, N. Y. 11050.

From Barbara White Sengstaken: “Lasell '69 graduate daughter, Nancy Sengstaken Wright, is a junior securities analyst for a Boston bank, and attends evening classes at Boston College. Her husband is a C.P.A., and will be going to law school this fall.”

Olga Costes Urban writes from Arlington, Va.: “Son Tom (Amherst '72) and Vicki Divell (Mt. Holyoke '73) of Abington, Mass. were married on May 25, 1973. He is presently administrative aide to the County Manager of Arlington; attends American University, working for his Master’s in Public Administration. Our daughter, Cindy, is a freshman at the University of Vermont—don’t think we’ll get her south again!!!”

Priscilla Perley Kerans was sorry to have missed Reunion. She keeps in touch with Shirley Haviland Woody, Polly Hanley Kuhn, Alba Squarcia McLinskey and Betty Ann Hills Eggers.

M. Shirley O'Connor's address is Big Fresh Pond Road, Southampton, N. Y. She adds: "Went back to college and received my degree in Biology in 1969. Bought a small place in Southampton, near Martha Maddock Heffner '43. Now work 50 miles from here—am evening laboratory supervisor at a large hospital."

A Terre Haute (Ind.) personnel firm has received its fifth national award for achievement. The Miriam Black Personnel Service received this award during the annual (July) convention of the National Personnel Associates, Inc., in Colorado Springs, Colo. Miriam's agency was listed third in co-operative placements and recruitment efforts in the region consisting of Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky and Wisconsin.

Doris Winkemeier Dieffenbach and Ann Broadhead Johnson enjoyed a "wonderful reunion" in Phoenix, Arizona. Doris has three children in college; one at home.

Candy Lammers, daughter of Eleanor Bradway, attends Hartt College of Music at the University of Hartford; brother Bruce is goalie for the Longmeadow (Mass.) High School ice hockey team.

In late June Elsie Simonds Follett sent "News of our Family: Husband Ben is still at G. E. and I'm working full time at the University of Vermont. Sally (22) will graduate from UVM in December (she took a semester for travelling); Andy (20) will be a senior at UVM; Nancy (19) just completed her freshman year at the University of Maine at Orono; Peter (16), a high school senior come September '74, will spend the summer as an AFS student in Switzerland; Bill (14) enters the 8th grade next year."

From California—Lynn Babbitt Cooper exclaims: "Love this state—it's the only way to go!!!" Edith Copp Casey writes from San Jose: "After 14 years in California, I begin to feel like a native. Have only our youngest, Beth, at home. Twin boys are married and we are very proud grandparents—twice. Linda, our oldest, was in the Air Force; is now working at a local hospital. Surely will try to make Reunion in '75."

Sincere sympathy is extended to Lorraine Anderson Crabtree, whose husband, Paul, died on February 15, 1974.

Barbara Bickley Rieger sends word from 3443 North Hill Road, Murrysville, Penna.: "Earlier this year my husband was transferred by Alcoa to the research lab here. All of the children, except one, elected to stay in Tennessee. Ellen is married and has a beautiful (naturally) nine-months-old daughter. Ken is a senior at UT; Doug, a junior at UT in Knoxville; Robert will be a freshman at Georgia Tech. Bill is entering sixth grade so has come with us. It does seem strange to have a small family again."

Joan Walker Doane is "enjoying Island living—although the bad press really hurt the tourist business at St. Croix. The weather is beautiful, plenty of gas and no thermostats to worry about."

And from Eleanor Lincoln Cosgrove: "Oldest son married and in business in Atlanta; second son, married and in second year Wake Forest Law School; third son attends University S. C.; fourth son, a junior in high school; fifth son, in second grade. Mother doing well!"

Lynn Harmon, daughter of Millicent Entwistle, was a member of Lasell's 1974 graduating class. Lynn received an associate degree in Medical Secretarial Science.

Joanne McMillan Mars writes from 11 Wedgewood Lane, Barrington, R. I.: "Am back in the ranks of the full-time employed—working in the publications make-up department at the American Mathematical Society in Providence. Daughter Nancy is now a high school junior; Steve, a freshman; we are starting to think of colleges and careers."

From Jeanne Franklin Bates: "Jim and I moved to the Cape (21 Stiles Road, South Yarmouth) five years ago and we're enjoying every minute of it. Daughter Judith, recently graduated from high school, is quite interested in a Physical Education program. Son Bob has just completed four years in the Navy, after being stationed at Camp David, Maryland. He is married; has two beautiful children, Ryan 2, and Katie, eight months old. How time does fly!"

Phyllis Sykes Brown hopes to be a permanent Washington area resident. She has lived for nearly five years in Vienna, Virginia; works part-time in the Guidance Department of the local high school.

Betty Carter Steele's older son now lives and works in Boston; the other lives at home. Her daughter, a June high school graduate, will study art. Betty is a technical librarian; does consulting and research in plastics and chemicals.

Anita Triantafel Hatzis reports on her family: James (23) works with his Dad at the family-owned companies in Waltham; Thomas, Jr.: (19) is a sophomore at the College of Engineering, Cornell University; and Stephanie (17) has been accepted at Ithaca College, Class of 1978.

Doris Smith Cleland and Joan Sloat Ziggins planned an early August reunion in San Mateo, Calif. Doris is now Mrs. A. John Cleland, Jr., 3681 Upton Street N.W., Washington, D. C. 20008.

Freda Alexander and two-time Olympic competitor Tina Noyes have co-authored the book I Can Teach You to Figure Skate. Hawthorn Books is the publisher.

Florence Johnson Kerdok, who is working for a Boston dentist, asks: "What's new with the '48-ers?"

The Roy Trevisans (Nancy O'Rourke '48)

Nancy O'Rourke Trevisan forwarded the latest family group picture, and added: "There are four boys and five girls, aged 4 to 19—hard to tell the difference these days! Have been following Elliot Richardson's career with interest. I worked with him in Senator Saltonstall's office twenty years ago. See what Lasell can do for you? We added a swimming pool to our new home last summer. With my beloved ocean so far away, it's the only way to go! Best wishes to all."

Doris Trefny landoli continues in the field of merchandising—part-time at Lord and Taylor, the Fashion Center, Ridgewood, N. J. The landolis celebrated their sixth wedding anniversary on June 29th.

Kay Poore Hamel assumed the responsibility of mailing Questionnaires to the Class; returned them to The Alumnae Office—and in alphabetical order!!! Up-to-date NEWS follows:

JANE ALFORD: Mrs. William H. Young, 14834 Dunnet Avenue, La Mirada, Calif. 90638. Gerald (Jerry) 1957; Paul 1962; Bruce 1967. What keeps you busy?: Gerald, Paul, Bruce and husband Bill. Helping with Little League baseball, PTA projects, knitting, relief society at the Mormon church. Bill is a director of personnel and industrial relations for a manufacturing company. At the Southern California Lasell Club meetings I have a chance to visit with Vicki Stone Leary and Shirley Greenhalgh Fadley. Elaine Reed Simpson '46 and Jane Cook Cardoza '43 live near by.

The Casper Kids (Joan Caswell '49)

BARBARA BERRY: Mrs. James F. Roberts, P. O. Box 794, Lexington, Neb. 68850. John 8/10/53; Dan 8/19/55; Steve 12/17/56; Gini 11/10/59; Lori 2/23/64. What keeps you busy?: Kids, 4-H, golf, P.E.O., bridge, travel and church. Husband owns 10,000 head commercial feed lot. Trips to Phoenix and San Diego, Hawaii and Florida last winter. Do not see anyone from Lasell—exchange Christmas cards with Martha Hurd, Carolyn Clark, Jane Wadhams, Carolyn Loewe and Joyce Rathbun.

JANET BRIDGHAM: Mrs. Orlando Winfield Foss, Jr., 1706 City Boulevard, Waycross, Georgia 31501. Randy 2/27/52; Cindy 3/28/55. When our son graduated from high school we took a family vacation to England. Rented a car and traveled from London to the Lake Country. Something we shall always remember because we did it together.

PHYLLIS BURCKETT: Mrs. Walter Ulicny, 144 Hillcrest Avenue, Summit, N.J. 07901. Peter 2/19/62. We enjoy family trips that combine some hunting or fishing for my husband and sight-seeing for Peter and me. In 1972 we were on safari in the bush country of Tanzania for a month; toured Greece on the way back. Last year we spent three weeks driving through Czechoslovakia; went on to London and Scotland for a grouse shooting party. My usual hobbies and community doings have taken a back seat these past three years as I've been helping my husband with his company.

CORINNE CAPONE: Mrs. Laurence McGuiggan, 161 Prospect Avenue, Revere, Mass. 02151. Laurine, July 1952, is a senior at Westfield State; Karen, December 1954, a sophomore at Bridgewater State; Brian, October 1956, is a freshman at the University of New Hampshire. I teach Home Economics at Revere High School; spent the Feb. school vacation in Hawaii.

JOAN CASWELL: Mrs. August J. Casper, 915 Sacandaga Rd., Scotia, N.Y. 12302. Susan Mary 4/4/62; Robert August 2/3/65; David Andrew 12/14/66; Donald Warren 6/28/68. We are a camping family when weather and time permit. Greatly saddened by the gas situation. Active at a swimming pool club in the summer; hope to start cross-country skiing next winter. Have an annual summer picnic with Corky Buffum Hall '48 and her family.

CAROLE CEDERGREN: Mrs. Jules A. Salerno, 151 Main St., Norwell, Mass. 02061. Lee 6/25/52; Sandra-Lynn 7/22/55; Jon 3/13/67. My 7-year-old keeps me very busy. See Mona Carson Bumpus occasionally. Visited Florida's Disney World in February; summer in Marion, Mass.—my husband built our home there. Enjoy working with our local chapter Home for Little Wanderers.

JEAN COOK: Mrs. John Henry Jacobs, 47 Camino por los Arboles, Atherton, Calif. 94025. Robert Oliver 12/18/57; Peter Lawrence 2/1/59; William Trexler 11/22/60; Sally Miller 10/15/61. Thoroughly enjoy California after 13 years of the cold Midwest. Make frequent trips to Hawaii.

BETTIE COOPERRIDER: Mrs. Ralph R. Barrett, 758 Howell Drive, Newark, O. 43055. William B. Sowards, age 23; Thomas Sowards 17; Diane Sowards 12; Fred Sowards 9. Am practicing law only part-time now. Active in Soroptimist Club. Saw Ellen Morris Phillips while visiting in Cleveland; two years ago met Gene Starrett Anderson at the Cape—neither has changed a bit—you'd recognize them anywhere.

NANCY CURTIS: Mrs. Arthur W. Grellier, 35 Pennymeadow Road, Sudbury, Mass. 01776. Barbara 12/11/54—just completed sophomore year at Cedar Crest; Bob 5/20/58—Rivers Country Day; Ricky 6/14/60—Sudbury Jr. High; Alison 5/15/62—6th grader. The family had a trip to Europe two years ago; plan a week in Eleuthera this year. Had the honor of winning the Town Women's doubles tennis tournament in '72.

BARBARA RUTH DAVIS: Mrs. Russell R. Canterbury, 79 Clarkridge Rd., Wethersfield, Conn. 06109. Have had a busy year—two brain operations, but I'm feeling much better now. However, doctor's orders—no 25th! Had to give up my display work, now I'm a lady of leisure and spoiling Russ and the kids. Doris, a senior at Springfield College, is going for her Master's. Made it through in three years with honors. Brian is a freshman at Westminster Choir College in Princeton, N. J. Has received a scholarship for next year; hopes to go in for choral directing. Toured Romania with the Greater Hartford Youth Group last summer—imagine carrying a French Horn all over Romania! This summer he works!

JOAN DeGELLEKE: Mrs. John R. Shrewsbury, Dolan Drive, Guilford, Conn. 06437. David 6/8/57; Sarah 4/13/60. What keeps you busy?: David and Sarah; part-time office manager for four pediatricians in Guilford; Republican Town Committee and nominating committee of same; secretary of High School Parents Advisory Council; sewing for my daughter; some needlepoint for me—and THAT'S ENOUGH. When she moved to Scituate (Mass.), Pat Madden Nelson was delighted to find Gene Starrett Anderson living across the street. Pat, Corky Sisson Wannie and I see each other often.

ANN DEWAR: Mrs. Robert Condon, 41 Littleworth Road, Dover, N. H. 03820. Penny 10/6/55. The "zoo" on this farm keeps me busy—2 dogs, 4 cats, 8 Hereford beef cattle—and hopefully, Golden Retriever puppies.

CAROL DUNN: Mrs. Roger H. Beane, 58 Birchwood Way, Laconia, N. H. 03246. Mark R. Burns, Jr. 1954—Plymouth State '77; Sandra Burns 1956—U. N. H. '78; Gary Burns 1958—College forever; Nancy Burns—L. H. S. '81; Inda Polvere 1971—L.H.S. '88. What keeps you busy?: "CHILDREN" that stay out half the night, burn all the gas in the cars, and kick when there is not enough hot water—after their 3-hour special showers, etc. etc. etc. We belong to the Winnepesaukee Yacht Club, the Laconia Country Club, Shrine Club and Kiwanis. Our free weekends are spent entertaining and cruising beautiful Lake Winnepesaukee.

BETTY ANN FELKER: Mrs. Stuart Hancock, 29 Rockland Rd., Concord, N.H. 03301. John Stuart Hancock 9/13/54. In January 1973 I started a job in the front office of Governor Thomson. Very exciting—and very exhausting! Stuart, an insurance broker, is a member of New Hampshire's Secondary Education Commission.

BETTY A. FINNELL: 8 Baron Park Lane, Burlington, Mass. 01803. From 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. I am secretary to vice-president, RCA Government Communications and Automated Systems Division, Burlington. After 5:00 p.m.—a course in Human Relations in Personnel at Northeastern University; tennis; skiing; dressmaking; needlepoint; and experimenting with terrariums. For two years I taught typing to high school dropouts and ladies on ADC sponsored by the OEC office in Cambridge. In 1971 I spent two weeks skiing in the French and Swiss Alps; in 1973 a week in San Juan and a week on a 70-foot schooner sailing in the British Virgin Islands. This year had a week in Florida, and will save my pesos for a trip to Portugal early in 1975.

JOAN FRANZOSA: Mrs. Rogert B. Leland, 22 Pleasant St., Northboro, Mass. 01532. James 7/12/62; Jeffrey 10/20/64; Michael 8/14/66. Semi-annual trips to Bermuda; summers on an island in Casco Bay, Maine. Unfortunately, have not kept in touch with classmates.

NANCY GALLOWAY: Mrs. Wilfred J. Merrill, 29 Conrad St., Methuen, Mass. 01844. Gary Charles, born 1952, died in 1971;; Pamela Ann, born 1955, attended Clark University for one year, is now a Dean's List student at the University of New Hampshire. I have worked in the delivery room at the Bon Secours Hospital for 19 years—it is still thrilling to see a new life come into being. In the summer we have a trailer at Long Lake, near Bridgton, Maine. My husband is manager of the Aerospace Division at General Electric; teaches Boy Scouts for their God and Country Award, and does much work at church.

JEAN GRANT: Mrs. Jean Walter, Apt. D-10, 2011 Richard Jones, Nashville, Tenn. 37215. Daughter Ann was 21 on December 29th. She is (a) a senior in the Nursing School at Emory University in Atlanta, and (b) an Ensign in the U.S. Navy Nurse Corp. She will graduate in August with a B.S. and R.N.; then off to Newport, R. I. for 6 weeks officers training; then to the Naval Hospital at Portsmouth, Va. Ann has been a Dean's List student throughout her four years at Emory. She has a beautiful, wholesome commitment to the service of all people through nursing. In addition to Ann, I am mother to 89 college undergrads and three beautiful Siamese cats. Came to Nashville in 1967 on an internship with the DARCEE project (Demonstration and Research Center for Early Education) at George Peabody College for Teachers. Had an opportunity to join the DARCEE staff as a research associate—resigned my position as Preschool Specialist with the Atlanta School System, leaving behind 15 years of teaching kindergarten, primary grades and special education as well as tenure, retirement, a solid financial future and other benefits that accrue to one who hangs in with a public institution. I was invited to join the faculty of the Department of Education at Peabody in 1970 and am currently an assistant professor of Early Childhood Education. In 1972 I was responsible for the establishment of an undergraduate major in Early Childhood Education. Teach two campus courses, supervise students in special field experiences and in student teaching, and advise and counsel with 80-100 undergrads. It's a busy life—but I love it! The only travel for me has resulted from consultant jobs. Have seen, or talked with, Jean Dickson Treveiler and Dode Molan Wheaton when I have passed through their areas en route to work with Head Start programs on Sioux Indian Reservations in North and South Dakota. When I have the time (and I work hard to find it), I love to hike, bike ride, canoe and play tennis. In case anyone is interested I am a member of the National Association for the Education of Young Children, served as co-chairman for the state conference of the Tennessee Association for the education of Young Children (1973-74) and am on the Board of Nashville Association for Children Under Six. Am also active with the Children's Issues Task Force, a very small volunteer group that has made a very big influence on legislation (local and national). On campus, I am advisor for Kappa Delta Pi, an honorary education society. Will be thinking of you-all on Reunion Weekend. My two years at Lassel really set me off for what I consider a very rewarding career.

NATALIE HALL: Mrs. Roger Grant Campbell, 5 Honeysuckle Court, Barrington, R. I. 02806. Virginia Lee, Bonnie

Jean and Roger Grant, Jr. Our daughter, Gini, has been selected an American Field Service exchange student for a year abroad in '74-'75.

ELIZABETH HARRINGTON: Mrs. Elizabeth Logan, 4 Columbus Terrace, Newton Highlands 02161. Robert, age 23; Pamela, 21. I am an insurance broker—Union Mutual Life Insurance Company, Wellesley, Mass. Working as a full-time agent/broker for Cowles-O'Toole Agency—exciting, demanding and competitive career. See Jo Sanborn Hickey occasionally and talk with Mary Bush Trunz. Have been to Europe twice in the past three years; high hopes for Amsterdam in October.

NANCY HAYDEN: Mrs. Gerd Drooff, c/o Nicholson Mexicana, S.A. de C.V. Apartado Postal M-8558, Mexico 1, D. F., Mexico. Peter, 13; Michael, 12; Eric, 10. We have lived out of the States for six years—Guatemala City, Sao Paulo and now Mexico City. Gerd is German—we often get to Europe to visit family there. Plan to leave late June for another trip to Germany and Austria.

ANN HOLLETT: Mrs. Neil C. Munro, 7 Pine Hill Drive, Dix Hills, N.Y. 11746. Petre 10/18/55; Elizabeth 8/7/57. Husband killed in an automobile accident in June '72. I am secretary to the headmaster of the East Woods School in Oyster Bay Cove.

ELIZABETH HONYWILL: Mrs. John J. Horgan, 25 Church Street, Wethersfield, Conn. 06109. Paul 6/21/57; Mark 9/22/59; David 2/15/62. Am running a shop in our home—selling Oriental antiques. We spend weekends and vacations at our farm in New York State.

MARTHA HURD: Mrs. Russell M. Davenport, Davenport's Sugar House, R.F.D. #1, Tower Road, Shelburne Falls, Mass. 01370. Marjorie 12/31/53; Christine 1/13/56; Barbara 4/26/57; Norman 2/27/60; Abe Jay 2/19/63. Am treasurer of our local Food Coop, member of Board of Directors of Red Cross (ran annual area Blood Bank); Mohawk Trail Arts & Crafts. Have just started sewing for local dress shop. Do all farm books, make and deliver maple syrup and sugar. Russ is a member of the Zoning By-Laws Committee; vice president Mohawk Trail Association, member Shelburne Savings Bank Board; also director of International Maple Syrup Council, which took us to Ontario last fall. Our children are the greatest hobby—we are so proud of them. We're a very busy family—don't get away much, but share a camp on Martha's Vineyard.

PAMELA JOHNS: Mrs. Pamela Leighton, 858 Barretts Mill Road, Concord, Mass. 01742. Deborah 11/13/49;

Christopher 8/13/51. See Janet Cartier Tomasello occasionally, and when I worked in Lexington, used to see Jewell Ward Ganger. Had a trip to Martinique last fall—love the Caribbean—wish I had the courage to pack up permanently!

JOAN KENNEDY: Mrs. Roland W. Johnson, 201 School Street, Acton, Mass. 01720. Arthur 8/28/53; Diane 9/27/55. I keep busy with local, church and civic affairs now that both children are in college. Have found Carlene Humphrey—she is Mrs. Charles Hopkins, R. F. D. #1, Lincolnville, Maine 04849.

NATALIE KNIGHT: Mrs. John V. Rogers, 707 14th St. S.E., Rochester, Minn. 55901. Teresa Lee 10/8/51; Jeanne Elizabeth 11/18/54; Linda Catherine 2/4/57; Janet Ann 4/24/59. Moved to Rochester about two years ago, but travel back and forth to “native” Michigan frequently. Have one married daughter; two grandsons. I work part-time in a Hallmark Card and Gift Shop. Husband is owner of two doughnut shops in Rochester—the Mayo Clinic doctors sure GO for “donuts”!!!

PATRICIA LANE: Mrs. David B. Harlow, 6 Hathaway Lane, Montville, N.J. 07045. Ivan 4/27/52; David 10/2/53; Jane 7/20/58. Cannot attend this Reunion—we’ll be returning from Ivan’s graduation at Rollins College, Winter Park, Fla. Hope to make the 30th!

NANCY LAWSON: Mrs. Richard K. Donahue, 52 Belmont Ave., Lowell, Mass. 01851. Gail 19; Tim 18; Mike 17; Nancy 16; Richard 14; Dan 13; Steve 12; Chris 10; Tara 9; Philip 5; Alicia 3. Travel quite frequently to the Greek Islands (DeMoulas Supermarkets), Lebanon (The Lebanon Bakery) and Israel (The Jewish Fruit Store). I am also in a constant exciting whirl of many professional people. Have developed a fascinating and creative hobby through dungaree patches, spray painting Goodwill furniture and restoring rooms with plaster patch, oil paint and paper.

DOROTHY LINDESTRAND: Mrs. Edward E. Magnuson, 21 Betts Rd., Belmont, Mass. 02178. Nancy 5/2/55; Carolyn 5/9/57; Elizabeth 6/17/61; Andrea 1/17/67. Frequently see several classmates—Joan Thornton Briand, Jean Wormuth Craig, Lee Drulie Dhimos, Beverly Peterson Bentley, Frances Smith Macdonald, Jewell Ward Granger and Sally Morgan Raftrey.

CAROLYN LOEWE: Mrs. Thomas H. Jones, 583 General Armstrong R., King of Prussia, Penna. 19406. Barbara Elizabeth 8/13/57; Nancy Ruth 10/10/59. Nancy died on April 11, 1974 of cystic fibrosis.

NANCY MACDONOUGH: Mrs. Lawrence E. Jennings, Jr., 508 Wilkin Road, Danville, Ill. 61832. Diane 9/19/52; David and Debbie 7/29/54; Donna 5/21/56; Laura 1/6/64. Volunteer work at church and in the local schools, plus Garden Club, keep me busy.

SALLY MORGAN: Mrs. Martin Raftery, Jr., 18 Irving St., Norwood, Mass. 02062. Suzanne 11/11/57; Lynn 5/16/61. Have “retired” after 1½ years as Avon district manager. Am “at home” serving my term as mother to two teenagers and selling a little Avon on the side. Keep in touch with several local classmates; have located Shirley Schuyler—Mrs. Edward S. Saxby, 208 Graffunder Drive, Menands, N.Y. 12204.

ZERLINA LEWIS: Mrs. Zerlina Barnett, 2016 N. 53 St., Omaha, Neb. 68104. In April I spent 9 glorious days in D. C.—attended several beautiful parties—one at the Watergate complex—luxurious. Loved Washington—my kind of cosmopolitan city—my choice, next to San Francisco, for a future move. Have the latest address—from the 1973 Christmas card—for Willie (Johndrew). She is Mrs. Sherman F. Allenson, 2507 Goddard Drive, Midland, Texas 79701. Sorry to miss Reunion—wonder how we all have survived and mellowed over the years.

ELLEN MORRIS: Mrs. Richard L. Phillips, 2866 Brighton Rd., Shaker Heights, Ohio 44120. Lee 1953; Grant ’55; Scott ’58; Stuart ’62. Keep busy cooking, cleaning, driving, playing tennis, bicycling, gardening, vacationing and exercising. Over the years I have seen Grace Palmetto Severino, Nat Hall Campbell, Elaine McGoldrick McGovern and Lois Mallon Maher (who lived in Cleveland for a while).

JOAN NELSON: Mrs. Werner Hermann Peterke, 6904 Windsor Mill Road, Baltimore, Md. 21207. Erhard 7/61; Reiner 12/63; Detmar 4/65; Hamlin 2/67. Last fall we all joined my husband on a business trip to Europe. While in Germany we stayed with his family—he had not been to Germany for over 18 years! Enjoyed meeting his brothers, their wives and children. The boys had fun playing with their cousins even though they did not speak the same language.

NANCY NEWHALL: Mrs. Robertson Mackay, 5 Sulgrave Rd., West Hartford, Conn. 06107. John 12/2/55; Stephen 2/25/59. Enjoy tennis, skiing, garden club, attend the children’s sporting events, paraprofessional for Science Department in the local H.S. Had a trip to Williamsburg in May with my mother, Marian Westphal Newhall ’21.

Last year we visited the Bahamas (boating and kids), London and California. Just returned from Bermuda—the owner of our rented cottage was the father of Jan Naess BoMadsen '48.

MARY SHOEMAKER: Mrs. Robert D. Budge, 7390 Woodyard Road, Hudson, O. 44236. Sandra, 20; Bruce, 18—both attending Kent State University. On June 9th I'll be graduating from the University of Akron—B.S. in Education. It was a long road to go—but enjoyed every minute. Wish I could be at Lasell but will be preparing for finals and graduation. Best wishes to all.

JOAN SULLIVAN: Mrs. Joan Alynt, General Delivery, Poland, Maine 04273. Mary 3/10/50—married, has two sons; Leigh 8/21/52—deceased 1/25/70; Elizabeth 11/18/54; William 11/12/55; John 4/12/62. I teach art at the Lewiston Junior High School. Just saw Polly Perry Atwood after all these years—marvelous! Wish I could make Reunion, but daughter Betsy is being married June 8th—much to do.

SALLY TAYLOR: Mrs. Clayton A. Murray, Jr., 49 Tashua Lane, Trumbull, Conn. 06611. Step-daughter, Kathy Murray Gray, has two sons. I do volunteer work at the Bridgeport Hospital Gift Shop, the little school in our church, and the Bridgeport Rehab. Center Nursery. We have a good Lasell alumnae club in this area. At the moment it is in one of its periodic slumps, but will pick up again, I'm sure. Do a lot of sewing, needlepoint, and am trying to do more gardening this year.

PATRICIA TRAMMELL: Mrs. Howard A. Swanson, Muleshoe Ranch, Breckenridge, Texas 76024. Mya Kathryn 8/17/54; Lisa Trammell 7/12/56. Keep busy working on ranch, 4-H activities with children, Texas Hereford Auxiliary, civic activities and church. A few years ago when I was in Boston, saw Lasell's changes—looked great.

JANE WADHAMS: Mrs. Charles S. Hazen, 10 Oxford Drive, West Hartford, Conn. 06107. Elizabeth 10/28/52—graduating with distinction from Russell Sage in May; Linda 2/26/54; Pamela 5/12/61—crown bearer for Lasell May Queen in 1966. Pat McCarthy Treat and husband manage the local Howard Johnson's. Joyce Rathbun Spadone telephoned on Mother's Day—she was in West Hartford visiting her mother.

MARILYN WEEDEN: Mrs. Robert B. Davidson, Jr., 12 Crane Avenue, West Peabody, Mass. 01960. Carole 6/28/54—Salem Hospital School of Nursing; William 12/28/55—freshman at Northeastern; Janet 8/30/59—9th grade; Douglas 5/4/65—3rd grade and a joy! Went to Essex Agricultural and Technical Institute (1973-74) for Practical Nursing. Took state boards in November; am now LPN working full-time days at J. B. Thomas Hospital in Peabody. That along with the children, the house and singing in Lynn Chapter Sweet Adelines (we're 3rd Place Champions in Region #1) keeps me going constantly.

JOAN WEILER: Mrs. Robert H. Arnou, 14 Butler Road, Scarsdale, N.Y. 10583. David 1950; Peter '52—married; Josh '57; Ruth '59. Family, home, school, charities and a farm in upstate New York keep me busy. Occasionally hear from Margie Kimball Salter.

JANET WHITE: Mrs. Laurens MacLure, 183 Sohler St., Cohasset, Mass. 02025. Allison 2/28/53; Amy 2/8/55; Laurens Jr. 5/1/56; Henry 7/1/60. Husband, kids, politics, volunteer work, Boston Children's Theatre keep me busy. Will have three in college next year. Amy, who was accepted at Lasell, elected to go to Bennett for change of scene from Massachusetts. Allison is at B.U.; Laurie, Jr. will go to Bucknell in the fall.

KATHERINE WHITE: Mrs. G. Robert Lawrence, Sr., 18 Phillips Road, Falmouth, Maine 04105. Julia 9/26/57; G. Robert Jr. 4/9/59. Transporting two active teenagers to basketball, baseball and track practice takes much of my time. Also work part-time in a Falmouth nursery school.

That and keeping the home fires burning sums it up! Busy, busy, busy—but wouldn't have it any other way. We do travel each year—a "safety valve". See Gene Starrett Anderson at least twice a year—we go to Scituate and she and Chet come to Huntington. Will miss seeing everyone at Reunion.

JACQUELYN WORD: Mrs. Tolbert L. Stallings, Jr., 3203 White Oak Road, Raleigh, N. C. 27609. David Stewart

6/30/54; Lisa Nichols 7/18/56; Kathryn Frances 9/1/58. What keeps you busy?: A home I love to keep when it's not too full of teens. A very busy husband whom I don't see nearly enough of. Teach two classes in Bible a week, and have a weekly prayer and sharing group in my home for an adult group and another for juniors and seniors from the local high schools. We have a second home in the charming fishing village of Oriental on the banks of the Neuse River (marvelous article in the May issue of Yachting on our little town and the sailing regattas).

DOROTHEA ZUSCHLAG: Mrs. Paul E. Torgersen, 1510 Palmer Drive, Blacksburg, Va. 24060. Karen 2/13/56; Janis 11/11/57; James 2/22/61. My husband is Dean of the College of Engineering at VPI & SU—that means much social involvement. Travel quite a bit. Saw Jackie Rollat Labarowski in Atlanta—she looks great! Sorry not to make Reunion—will be thinking of you all and know it will be a great success.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Lorraine Riley Crahan, whose husband, Christopher J. Crahan III, died suddenly on February 19, 1974. The Crahans have eight children.

Sandy David Mather is "busy with four children. Our oldest daughter has bought her own horse—which we all love. I'm still teaching nursery school and playing tennis—and raising collie dogs. Please get in touch—should any 54-ers be coming California-way. The address: 24741 San Vincent Lane, Mission Viego 92675."

Deborah Potter Waugh's daughter, Cynthia Joan, was married to Thomas Daniel Drake on August 4, 1973. The Drakes are living in West Hartford; both attend the University of Hartford.

Anna-Mae George Wogan and family live in Wayland. Daughter Candie will be a freshman at Lasell in September '74.

Also nearby in Acton is Priscilla Head Davis. She writes: "Love being back in New England. Husband has joined the Acton Minutemen so suspect we will be active participants in many of the Bi-Centennial celebrations."

Gigi Harold continues to enjoy the annual skiing trips; hopes to repeat February's visit to Switzerland's Matterhorn.

Carol Kenneally Gardner is working full-time as an instructional aide for the second and third grades in the Yorba Linda school system. Judith Gushue Blythe is with the Travel Department of American Express in Atlanta.

"Have really gotten the tennis bug—waiting for my first trophy," writes Cynthia Tredeau Wegerdt. "Our four daughters and one son keep me busy too—but I love it. Best to all."

Pat Reynolds Fisher and family are enjoying a new and large retirement home at Buzzards Bay, Mass. Richard Daniel, born in June 1972, and Paul Frederick, born in July 1973, make a total of six children for the Fishers. Pat's husband was retired from the Air Force in 1971.

Mary Augur Wallace is a member of the faculty at the Branford (Conn.) High School. Linda Brown is now working for both the vice-president and the treasurer of Christian Dior Perfumes Corp.

For two years, Janice Engstrom Barbato has been living in West Palm Beach, where her husband is an executive vice-president of the Perini Land and Development Company.

Kay Rohleder Oetting sends a new address: 23832 Via el Rocio, Mission Viejo, Calif. 92675.

News of Carol Phalen Swiggett in Huntington, N. Y.: "Have been busy setting up for a three-day workshop in the field of Criminal Justice for education for the Junior League of the North Shore. This was prompted by a conference I attended in Houston last winter. Also am secretary of Visiting Homemaker Service and Citizen-Faculty Association at the Cold Spring Harbor High School—plus raising three wonderful children, one horse, two dogs and our latest hobby—bees. Relish every moment of our beautiful, hectic life.”

Judy Komito Oster had a Florida visit with Lasell roommate, Judy Leventhal Winer; shared Christmas greetings with Norma Gamins Wise and Joan Craven Shuba. Judy is a volunteer in the nursery school of the Society for Crippled Children in Cleveland. Her Terri is now 12; Cindy, 9.

Bobbie Flint Gerold's letter is postmarked Baton Rouge, La.: "After moving all over the States it looks as if we are finally settled in the south. Bill is a marketing manager for the Ethyl Corp. I have gone into partnership with another decorator. Geared to assist the builder and the contractor it seems we will do well with the knowledge we are bringing a needed service to Baton Rouge. Our spare time and weekends are filled with the excitement that comes with owning and showing horses—a lifetime dream for me."

From Anne Day Smith: "The Smiths are now living in Minnetonka—a very pretty Minneapolis suburb. Gerry is with Dayton-Hudson Corp.; is assistant manager of one of Dayton's branch stores. I work for an investment management company and have my broker's license. The oldest of our three sons is attending North Yarmouth Academy in Maine."

Lucky Sussman Hill, husband Len, and their two children, Peter and Jennifer, live in Weston, Mass. Lucky will complete work for a B.A. at Boston College in the fall of '74.

Marcia Hamilton Killeen writes of "a very nice get-together with Pat Tarraciano Cicconi and husband Bob, who now reside in Phoenix. Our five and the Cicconi's six made for a full swimming pool! Can't beat the beautiful weather of the Southwest!"

News from Ginny Krauss White: "Have been living in Livingston, N. J. for 14 years. Things have been very active with four children—Robert is 16; Jeffrey, 14, John, 12, and Cynthia, 6. The boys participate in all sports and achieve very well in school. Cindy loved kindergarten and can't wait for September and first grade! Husband Jim is an instructor of Physical Education at the Bloomfield High School and is head soccer coach there. Would love to hear from Lasell classmates."

Pat Koules Kandianis and family are involved in the usual suburban activities (Newington, Conn.). One of Pat's favorite pastimes is a monthly book discussion group, formed ten years ago by a handful of her Connecticut College classmates.

And from 111 Tall Timbers Lane, Glastonbury, Conn. Joan Deshefy Patenaude writes: "Moved into our new home last summer and that's been a real joy. I keep active as a volunteer at the Hartford Hospital and with the Child and Family Services of Connecticut."

For Marion Heinsohn Michell "life is very busy right now mainly because of the children's activities—and the carpooling! Hope to work part-time next year when our little girl goes into first grade and our oldest son enters high school. How is that for spreading out a family? To keep myself busy, I've been playing some tennis and bridge; we also belong to gourmet and book review groups. See Nancy Cincotta Emons frequently—her two boys and ours are great friends."

The present address for Donna Daly King is 8 Garfield Place, Ridgewood, N.J. 07450.

Natasha Kent Salgado writes to the Recorder's Office from Caracas, Venezuela: "I am in the process of validating my studies so that I may be able to teach in the Venezuelan public schools. Have been told that I must present the original and two copies of my transcripts with a description of the courses that I took in the United States."

"Often think of Lasell and wish that I might attend one of the Class Reunions. When I return to the States, I always drive by the Lasell buildings and long to return to the days when I was a student. Shall never forget how kind Miss June Babcock was to me and often remember a dear friend, Mahin Sorouri of Iran, with whom I have lost contact. Since leaving Lasell, I have received my B.A. at Boston University; studied English and Russian in London, and spent two years at the University of Moscow. Have been teaching English as a foreign language here in Venezuela for the past seven years."

Am now studying and painting with a well-known Venezuelan artist and hope some day I might have my own exhibition. I am married to a nationalized Venezuelan (born in Spain), Dr. Jose Luis Salgado. He is a civil engineer and a professor in the Central University in Caracas. We have four daughters—Nadia 6, Tania 4, Sonia 2 and Chandra, five months old. All the children, except of course, Chandra, are bilingual. Do send best regards to Miss Helen Beede and to my former zoology professor, Miss Harriet Tinker."

Scott and Todd Crawford
(Sally Brockway '59)

Beverly Bigelow Young "enjoyed 15th Reunion. The campus sure has changed since 1959. My three sons—Mark, Jeffrey and Todd—keep me busy. Husband Bill is chief legal counsel to Massachusetts Governor Sargent."

From Carlene Hintlian Newell: "Have two children—Todd 6, and Kimberly 3. It really is a small world—Todd's best friend is Robbie McLaughlin, whose mother, Joan Conradi McLaughlin, is a Lasell classmate. We were very surprised to find each other in the same neighborhood—nearby too is Louise Ruma Ivers—and my babysitter was graduated in May '74."

Sandy Poole Adams believes she's found "just the right spot to put my Lasell retail training to good work"—in Adams' Livery in Barnstable Village, Cape Cod, Mass. The new shop, which caters to ladies—but the gentlemen have not been forgotten—will be open year round from ten to five (starting August 5, 1974) with the coffee pot ready and waiting.

Joyce Mitchell Schrader has returned to the classroom—she attends the University of New Hampshire. "Quite an experience," writes Joyce. "Have a part-time job as a Home Health Aide, and run around taking care of three active youngsters as well as my husband. It's a hectic life, but never dull."

In September 1973 Marilyn Beaton Lange and husband adopted Marissa Ruth, six-weeks-old. Marilyn continues teaching—35 second graders—in the Buzzards Bay area.

Mary Lou Teegarden Magee "loves Rhode Island (Barrington)—keep busy sailing and enjoying our six children. Saw Anne Telfer Considine a couple of years ago—would love to see others."

As of May 15, 1974 Priscilla Williams Espenhain's address is 4 Shepard Way, Canton, Mass. 02021.

Eileen Dahl Lord writes from Pasadena, Calif.: "Philip, a pre-first grader, and Sharon, in fifth grade, leave for Mexico City with 35 other children from the Pasadena area for a two-week student exchange program. Cynthia, a 7th grader, recently became a member of the National Honor Society. I am working for the local branch of the Crocker National Bank."

Carolyn Wood Brox is looking forward to a leisurely summer at the new lakeside cottage. En route home from a Florida vacation, she enjoyed a brief visit at the Washington Airport with brother Bob and sister-in-law, Ann Douglas Wood.

Linda Bailey Bolton is "busy with a mini-farm—take pride in raising and freezing our own vegetables and animals."

The Class extends sympathy to Dorothy Mulherin Foy, whose husband, Brian, suffered a massive coronary and died in May 1973.

Joan White Martin has a busy schedule—housewife, full-time office manager, raises Samoyed show dogs. She hopes to see some Lasell friends as she travels to Dog Shows during the summer and fall.

Elizabeth Bigelow George sends news from a new address—1536 Cavendish Avenue, Santa Rosa, Calif.: "Currently am office manager for 3 OB-GYN doctors who started practice last July. Hope to be 'home' on Cape Cod for two weeks in July."

Greetings to "all Lasell friends" come from Jane Kremer Bray, 3101 Garland Drive, Portsmouth, Va. 23703.

*Evan Cary and Pam Adelstein
(Barbara Jacoby '60)*

Baila Issokson Janock is "happy and busy trying to bring up five children—and a Collie."

Barbara Jacoby Adelstein takes time to bring us up-to-date: "Have been a housewife and mother since I stopped teaching to have our first child in April 1971. Now we have two—Pam was born in 1971 and Evan Cary in August 1973. My husband is an elementary school teacher; I plan to return to teaching when both children are in school."

Sheila Horowitz is now in Israel, working on a kibbutz with kindergarten children.

Patricia McKinnon Williams sends news from 2810 Deerwood Drive, Winston-Salem, N. C.: "Have been living here in Winston-Salem for over six years. Earl is a senior engineer with Western Electric, and spends a great deal of time traveling. I've joined him on a few trips to the West Coast—but haven't made the European circuit yet! Our son, Todd, is almost five; this past February our daughter, Kathryn, was born. For a girl who is used to being right at the beach all summer, Winston is unbearable—very hot and humid from May to September. Fortunately, we shall visit my family in Narragansett, R. I. for the summer. Usually see Dottie Musche on these annual visits. Does anyone from my Lasell days live in North Carolina?"

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Wight (Geraldine Weidman) are pleased to announce the adoption of a daughter, Melinda Joy.

Valerie Orcutt Sirignano writes: "Have lived in northern Westchester County (Susan Drive, Somers, N. Y.) for the past seven years. Ray was appointed Deputy Commissioner of Jurors for County; I completed my B.S. at Western Connecticut College in nearby Danbury; Patina Emerson was born January 28th."

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Hunter (Nan Sparks) announce the adoption of Tyson Yang, fourteen months-old, from Korea.

Sheilah Keil Pollack now works for a title insurance company in Philadelphia; occasionally sees Dee Drozek Sommer and Karen Mandel Marschall; corresponds with Linda Resnick Baer.

Ilona Koch Hollar is a legal secretary in White Plains, N. Y. Had recent visits with Pat Murphy Owen and Nancy McDowell '64. While on a Florida vacation she saw Pam Sherry Creed in Fort Lauderdale. Connie Weeks now lives in New York City.

Dee Orben Campbell is secretary to the Chatham (N.J.) Combined Health and is secretary of the Junior Women's Club of that town.

Francine Cohn Jaffe's son Michael will be off to kindergarten in the fall. Daughter Charlene is two years old.

Nance Magill Karp has had a visit with Betsy Berlowe Webber, who lives in Portland, Maine. Nance's children are Jennifer Leigh, 7, and Douglas Magill Karp, 4.

*Scott and Nicole Marschall
(Karen Mandel '62)*

Robin MacCloskey Agnew is enjoying life in the lovely, scenic ocean-town of Duxbury, Mass. She has accepted the position of regular soloist with the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Marshfield.

Linda Strecker Harmon's husband,

Bill, has opened his own CPA practice in Westfield, Mass.; Linda is the part-time secretary.

In a precedent-setting case backed by the Bristol (Conn.) Education Association, the CEA, and the NEA, a Hartford County Superior Court Judge on February 19, 1974 issued a court order to enforce a teacher maternity policy ruling handed down earlier by the Connecticut State Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities. The case involved the entitlement of two teachers to receive back pay for the time lost due to childbirth for which the Bristol Board of Education had refused to grant them sick leave and had tried to fire them. One of the teachers involved was Bonnie Reimann Ferranti, who forwarded the newspaper clipping and added: "The fight lasted ten months and involved several court actions before it was settled. I am now happily employed again as a training disabilities teacher at Bristol Eastern High School."

We extend sincere sympathy to Nancy Sporborg Keck and to her son, Billy, aged 5. Nancy's husband, William Aaron Keck, died suddenly of heart disease on April 10, 1974. He was Chairman of English and Social Sciences at New York's Hudson Valley Community College.

Ginny Law Murphy and family have recently moved to 250 Ivy Hill Road, Ridgefield, Conn. Husband Connor is a salesman for the Hoerner Waldorf Corporation of Greenwich. The Murphys have five children—Brian 8, Kevin 7, Jennifer 5, "Cricket" 3, and Connor III, 2.

Margo Hicks Waite is assistant to the publisher and a director of Blair & Ketchum's COUNTRY JOURNAL, the new magazine of New England country living which made its first appearance on the newsstands with the May 1974 issue. COUNTRY JOURNAL will deal with topics such as conservation, land use, zoning, taxation. It will also have articles about how to get a fair appraisal of real estate, how to build a greenhouse, what trees to cut for firewood, plus regular features on gardening, cooking, country inns, seasonal home maintenance. It will cover things to do and places to go in New England; it will carry advertising. The staff of the magazine, as well as the contributors to it, are committed to New England. The publisher, William S. Blair, lives in Guilford, Vermont, on a farm he has owned for ten years. He was previously president and publisher of Harper's Magazine in New York. Mr. Blair's partner and editor of the new venture is author Richard M. Ketchum. He edited many American Heritage books, including "The American Heritage Pictorial History of the Civil War" in 1960, for which he received a Pulitzer Prize Citation. The publishing office of COUNTRY JOURNAL is in Brattleboro, Vermont; the editorial office, in Manchester, Vermont. Margo most thoughtfully sent a copy of the First Issue to the Alumnae Office; has contributed a subscription to Lasell's Brennan Library.

She's Massachusetts' No. 1 dressmaker and No. 2 in the nation...at least in the couture contest that she entered. But she has never had a dress-making lesson. SHE is Priscilla Dorman Kirby of Wellesley, whose four-piece camel hair outfit won her a first prize statewide and a second prize nationally in this year's sewing contest sponsored by the National Federation of Women's Club and Spadea Patterns. The Boston Herald-American of July 19th carried the feature story by staff writer Virginia Bohlin.

Carla Rose, 132 Mason Terrace, Brookline, Mass. 02146. Born: Carla Valentine, Cambridge, Mass. Married: Jay S. Rose 7/2/72.

Occupation: Writer, Producer, Editor. Graduated Boston Museum School, Tufts Univ., (B.F.A. 1969). Formerly art director, animator, Tech Films Corp.; News Graphics Director, WKBG-TV; Programming Film Editor and Special Projects Editor, WKBG-TV and WCVB-TV, Boston; Ms. Rose also served as Media Project Co-ordinator for the Harvard School of Public Health, working with faculty members to produce media as teaching aids. She wrote and produced many films, videotapes, and slide-tape lectures, as well as teaching part of a course in communications to M.D.'s and Public Health officials. Among recent projects have been a film for John Hancock Insurance, a multi-media exhibit for the Museum of Transportation, a film for a recent women's special on WBZ-TV, and several TV commercials. At present, she is involved in production of a women's show for TV syndication, and has several films in progress.

News for the LEAVES from Helene Smith Shippen, 233 Cambridge Avenue, Fair Haven, New Jersey 07701: "Rick and I have bought our first home after living in Delaware, Texas, Wisconsin and now New Jersey. What a great experience meeting and working with people!! After graduating with a B.S. in Education from the University of Delaware, we moved to San Antonio where I taught second grade and Rick was with Kerr Glass Company. I was privileged to have a student teacher and pilot a Rand-McNally social studies program for 150 students. This was most rewarding. Kerr Glass moved us to Wisconsin three years later and I taught again until Reid was born. Now he is teaching us!! What a delight!! By keeping up my Water Safety Instructors (Red Cross) and being ten minutes from ocean resorts, Reid may learn to swim at 2½. PEO Sisterhood claims me as a member, and Rick and I are active in the fantastic Red Bank Presbyterian Church where Dr. Charles Webster is minister. He is a cousin of the late Peter Marshall. Being a part of this institution has been the highlight of our year here."

(Diane Harrison '64)

Beverly Townsend Branzell sends a new address—84 Bedford St., West Bridgewater, Mass.—and adds: "Find it hard to believe that 1974 marks the tenth anniversary of my graduation from Lasell. My husband and I also celebrate our tenth wedding anniversary in June. Hope to return to Auburn-dale one day and drink in all the marvelous changes."

From Susan Coster Malsin: "Really love it in Darien. Have bumped into several ex-Lasellites. Shari Congdon lives here, and one of our best friends is the sister of Penny Lawder. Sam Ash Hayden lives on Long Island; we manage to get together often."

Karen (Metcalf) and Frank Sommer live in Chenango Forks, N. Y. with their three daughters, Kirsten 6, Lisa 4, and Kara, born October 1973.

Diane Harrison Semeraro writes from 9 Farm Street, Medway, Mass.: "Have been on kidney dialysis for over a year, but still was able to attend the Luncheon event of Reunion Weekend. Am presently awaiting a transplant. My husband (Dr. John) has been in practice in Internal Medicine in Medford for two years. Our daughter Heather, a Girl Scout, plays the violin and will enter the fourth grade in September. John, who is seven, won a red ribbon in his school's Hobby Show for a tacklebox with which he has caught nine trout thus far this year. (His father has caught only one to date this year.)"

A note "To The Class of 1964 Reunioners, dated May 13, 1974, comes from Marion Bishop Kersh, Casa Los Santos, 7440 East Thomas Road, Scottsdale, Arizona: "After much debating and traveling back and forth, it was no little move—especially for one who never thought she'd leave the East Coast. Made it to Scottsdale—and love it. Blue skies all the time—no smog—people who are really friendly. Drove across the country—eight days—sight-seeing along the way. It was a great trip. Am beginning to feel like a walking advertisement for Scottsdale even though I've only been here one week. If any classmate is out this way, I'd love to see you. Have a great Reunion."

News of Martha Dirksen Adams: "My husband and I were married in July '69, and John worked 500 acres of farm for two years. He and his father raised standardbred horses. We were both very interested to know what goes into making a great racehorse so we moved to Orlando, Fla. in the fall of '71 and took care of several prospective winners. We spent the winter there and traveled north with the racing stable which took us to Wilkes Barre, Penna., Monticello, Saratoga and just about all the harness tracks in New York State. In the fall of '72 we moved to Liberty Bell Park in Philadelphia and to Pinehurst, N. C. for the winter. By this time we'd seen all our hard work pay off for the stable made over $200,000 during the previous spring and summer. Last June we decided to return to the farm in Sodus, N. Y.—get back to our old lifestyle. The pace here is much slower—easier to take. We are raising Standardbreds and now have a small herd of beef cattle."

"Dear Friends at Lasell:" writes Ellen Evans Bishop. "Since I've literally been out of touch since graduation, I thought I would bring you up-to-date. For two years I was a legal secretary for a patent law firm; then decided to go into my father's commercial printing business. Married Larry Bishop on July 6, 1973; we are now deeply involved in my father's business. We've bought a home in Bedford, Mass.—326 Old Billerica Road—I'd love to hear from Lasell classmates. The memories of Lasell and its dedicated teachers will always be near and dear to me."
